

Greetings from Alma, Wisconsin!!

2022 Alma Music and Arts Festival

Sunday, Labor Day Weekend- September 4th

Artist Vendor-Application

The 19th annual Alma Arts and Music Festival will take place Sunday, September 4th, 2022, under the trees on the eastern shore of the Mississippi River at the Alma Beach and Recreation Area. Located on the Great River Road between majestic bluffs and the Mississippi River, the historic City of Alma, Wisconsin, has hosted the Festival since its beginnings. The venue can also be reached by boat above Lock and Dam #4. Camping is available at nearby Rieck's Lake Park on a first come basis. The Festival is free and open to the public.

We invite artisans with hand-crafted work only. As this is a juried event, please send a link to your website or 3-5 pictures of your work.

The entrance fee is $45.00. Booth size is approximately 12'x12'. You may request 2 side by side spaces for $65.00. Please include your sales tax id number on the application form below.

Festival grounds open at 11 am. Committee members will be available to facilitate booth setup starting at 7 am. We will also have hot coffee and a morning snack for you.

Please complete this application and return it with your entrance fee by August 15, 2022.
